XIII Annual Meetings of the LACEA / IADB / WB/ UNDP
Research Network on Inequality and Poverty
Buenos Aires, Argentina – September 30, 2009

The next meeting of the LACEA/IDB/WB/UNDP Network on Inequality and Poverty (NIP) will be held in Buenos Aires, Argentina on September 30, 2009 at the Universidad Torcuato Di Tella.

The NIP is an initiative that aims to advance the state of knowledge and expertise regarding the causes and consequences of poverty, inequality, and social exclusion, as well as the whole range of policies, institutions, and social structures that influence their dynamics, as well as the impact of public intervention.

The theme of this meeting will be “Household responses to exogenous shocks and policy options: Lessons from crisis episodes” and will prioritize papers on the following (non-exclusive) related topics:

- Crisis impacts on poverty, vulnerability, human capital accumulation or well-being
- Determinants of vulnerability to exogenous shocks
- Determinants of changes in poverty and inequality in LAC
- Evaluation of policy interventions to compensate economic shocks

The meeting program will include a keynote address of Nora Lustig (Samuel Z. Stone Professor of Latin American Economics at Tulane University and a nonresident fellow at the Center for Global Development and the Inter-American Dialogue) entitled “The New Dynamics of Inequality: A Break with the Past?”.

Papers will be selected on the basis of academic merit, each with a formal discussant. Submitted papers will be reviewed by a program committee, which includes members of the Executive Committee of the Network. Papers should be sent by August 31, 2009. Authors of the selected papers will be notified by e-mail on September 4, 2009. Strict compliance with these deadlines is required.

Papers (Word and PDF files) and any inquiries concerning the meeting should be sent by e-mail to: Joao Pedro Azevedo (jazevedo@worldbank.org) and Elia Carrasco (elia.carrasco@undp.org).
